Career DEVELOPMENT

This section highlights students’ career growth and their professional achievements. At the Grove School of Engineering students are trained with rigorous coursework and mentored research activities. These examples illustrate how GSOE graduates have gone on to meet 21st century challenges.

A model of Boron Nitride Nanotube with chiral vector (3,5), generated using POV-Ray by Kyue Dong Kim (Class of 2011, Computer Science).